

Keeping Working Waterfronts at Work: A National Perspective on Coastal Communities

Please join us to learn about the challenges confronting our Nation's working waterfronts and waterways, and their importance to the economy, specifically to the commercial fishing industry and to water-dependent businesses.

NOAA Seminar

Tuesday, May 31

12:00-1:00 pm

NOAA Library

(Silver Spring, Building 3, Floor 2)

Brought to you by NOAA's Oceanic and Atmospheric Research (OAR), National Ocean Service (NOS), and National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS)

Speaker Panel:

Ryck Lydecker

Assistant Vice President for Govt. Affairs
Boat US

Dave Knight

Transportation Specialist
Great Lakes Commission

Thomas Hymel and Scott Saunier

Delcambre Direct Seafood Marketing
Louisiana Sea Grant

Heather Mann

Executive Director
Community Seafood Initiative in Oregon

Hugh Cowperthwaite

Program Manager
Coastal Enterprises Inc. in Maine

For more information, please contact Lauren Land (lauren.land@noaa.gov), 2011 Knauss Fellow in the National Sea Grant Office